27 During the second presidential debate on Oct. 11, 2000, as a Presidential candidate you responded to a question about racial discrimination and said that "...there is other forms of racial profiling that goes on in America. X
Could prohibition of racial profiling have been a factor in the FBI Headquarters personnel continually and "inexplicably" throwing up "roadblocks" and even undermining the field agents' "desperate efforts to obtain a FISA search warrant in the Moussaoui investigation." time.com/time/covers/1101020603/memo.html			X
29 In the first few weeks of the Bush administration it has been reported that Andrew Card, Chief of Staff required that all regulations (passed down by the Clinton administration) that had not yet been issued had to be reviewed anew by an official appointed by the new administration, generally, the department secretary. www.whitehouse.gov/news/releases/20010123-4.html			X
Before adopting this blanket policy that delayed the implementation of regulations, did anyone in your administration have any concerns about delaying those that related to security issues, such as National Security or aircraft/airport security?			X

31 Please discuss the National Security Presidential Directive presented for your approval on September 9, 2001, which outlined plans for attacking al Qaeda in Afghanistan.
“[Plans had been drawn up by the] Clinton administration to launch an attack on Al Qaeda in Afghanistan. Those plans were shelved when Bush took office, but were revived and accelerated in August 2001, following the breakdown of the pipeline negotiations. By the beginning of September 2001, the war plans had been approved by the Pentagon. On September 9 a National Security Presidential Directive outlining plans for an attack the following month, was presented to President Bush for approval.” www.pmdtc.org/docs/frnotices/66FR23310.PDF jimpivonka.com/unpublished/forbiddentruthrev.html www.guardian.co.uk/wtccrash/story/0,1300,556279,00.html

33 Please explain the reasoning which prompted the Executive Order governing the re-release of Presidential Records, including those of previous administrations, which could conceivably include historically important documents pertinent to the September 11th investigation. www.house.gov/reform/min/pdfs/pdf_inves/pdf_admin_records_let.pdf			X
34 When did you first become aware of “Rebuilding America’s Defenses”(RAD) proposed by the New American Century’s (PNAC)? Who introduced it to you?			X
35 After September 11th, you seemed to have fully embraced the RAD plan. Please comment on these observations:
“Bush has virtually used, word for word, the written statements by PNAC members when he speaks publicly about Iraq crisis” www.globalpolicy.org/security/issues/iraq/attack/2003/0227hellbent.htm			X
“Already we are seeing evidence of PNAC influence on U.S. policy. For instance, the concept of “Homeland Defense” comes straight from “RAD.” Iran, Iraq and North Korea, nations that George Bush calls the “Axis of Evil”, are listed together in “RAD” several times as possible military threats to the U.S. There is a suggestion that military spending be increased to 3.8 percent of the GDP, exactly the amount (over and above present expenses for the Iraqi campaign) Bush has proposed for next year’s budget. Its basic statement of policy bespeaks and advocates the very essence of the idea of preemptive engagement... Bush’s National Security Strategy of September 20, 2002, adopted PNAC ideas and emphasized a broadened definition of preemption... There is even assertion of the necessity of American political leadership overriding that of the U.N. [p. 11], a policy that was sadly played out when the U.S. invaded Iraq without the approval of either the U.N. or the international community.”

5	After the revelation of the Aug 6th Presidential Daily Briefing which warned that terrorists may hijack planes, you explained, "It was an analytic report that talked about UBL's [bin Laden's] methods of operation, talked about what he had done historically, in 1997, in 1998. It mentioned hijacking, but hijacking in the traditional sense and, in a sense, said that the most important and most likely thing was that they would take over an airliner, holding passengers and demand the release of one of their operatives." www.cnn.com/2002/ALLPOLITICS/05/16/rice.sept11 Comment: Al Qaeda attacks have one goal--- killing as many people as possible, usually in a spectacular way. Further, al Qaeda's attacks are often lethal, well-planned, simultaneous strikes against symbolic or high-profile targets. Those characteristics are inconsistent with the conclusion that the most likely scenario would be hijackings in the traditional sense, especially when coupled with bin Laden's declaration in 1998 that "every American should be a target for Muslims," and that it is "the duty of Muslims to confront, fight, and kill British and American citizens." www.cooperativeresearch.org/timeline/2002/bostonglobe052602.html

Questions For Dr. Rice from the Joint Intelligence Committee Inquiry Appendix
1	As stated in the Appendix of the Joint Inquiry of Congress' Final Report: “Despite the White House decision [to deny access to the PDBs], the Joint Inquiry was advised by Intelligence Community representatives of the content of an August 2001 PDB item that is discussed in the report. This glimpse into that PDB indicated the importance of such access: *National Security Advisor Condoleezza Rice stated in a May 16, 2002 press briefing that, on August 6, 2001, the President’s Daily Brief (PDB) included information about Bin Ladin’s methods of operation from a historical perspective dating back to 1997. One of the methods was that Bin Ladin might choose to hijack an airliner in order to hold passengers hostage to gain release of one of their operatives. She stated, however, that the report did not contain specific warning information, but only a generalized warning, and did not contain information that al-Qa’ida was discussing a particular planned attack against a specific target at any specific time, place, or by any specific method.” (Joint Inquiry Final Report, Appendix, “Access Limitations Encountered by the Joint Inquiry,” pages 1-2). Ms. Rice can you reconcile this intimated discrepancy?			X

From The Complete 9/11 Timeline, Part 2: Jan. 2001-Sept. 11, 2001 by Paul Thompson: "January 4, 2001: The FBI's investigation into the USS Cole bombing learns that terrorist Khallad bin Atash had been a principal planner of the bombing [AP, 9/21/02], and that two other participants in the bombing had delivered money to bin Atash at the time of the January 2000 meeting in Malaysia (see January 5-8, 2000). The FBI shares this information with the CIA, and when CIA analysts reexamine pictures from the Malaysian meeting to learn more about this, they find a picture of him standing next to hijacker Khalid Almihdhar. [Congressional Intelligence Committee, 9/20/02, Newsweek, 6/2/02] The CIA is aware that Almihdhar entered the US a year earlier, yet they don't attempt to find him. CNN later notes that at this point the CIA at least "could have put Alhazmi and Almihdhar and all others who attended the meeting in Malaysia on a watch list to be kept out of this country. It was not done." [CNN, 6/4/02] More incredibly, even bin Atash is not placed on the watch list at this time, despite being labeled as the principal planner of the Cole bombing. CIA agent who alerted the FBI about Almihdhar and Alhazmi
1	The JICI Report says that a concerned CIA agent working at the FBI triggered a review which fell to an FBI analyst and CTC. The analyst determined that the two San Diego terrorists had entered the country and they were finally watch listed on August 23, 2001.
	However, the FAA was not notified. [JICI Report, p.15] Supposedly, no one could locate the terrorists. But that doesn't make sense.
	According to the JICI Report, someone at the CIA knew that Almihdhar and Alhazmi were in the country and had failed to tell the FBI. Why do you suppose you had not been informed by headquarters that the terrorists were in San Diego?			X

1	Secretary Rumsfeld in a press conference on September 11th indicated that that FBI had secured the Pentagon site. www.patriotresource.com/wtc/federal/0911/DoD.html Were the World Trade Center site and Flight 93 crash site also secured? If not, why not?			X

4	Why were bin Laden's relatives whisked out of the US without the detailed questioning other Middle Easterners received, particularly since some members were being investigated for links to terrorism? "But Newsnight has obtained evidence that the FBI was on the trail of other members of the Bin Laden family for links to terrorist organisations before and after September 11th. 5	There are reports that there were at least four other terrorist suspects (three of whom were reportedly Saudis) taking flight lessons at Rudi Dekker's and Wallace Hilliard's flight schools, Huffman Aviation and/or Ambassador Aviation. Turki M. Almasri, 22, a Saudi national, was named in a story in the Washington Post. The other three include two Saudis, Kamran Hussain, traveling on a UK passport; and Ahmad Badri, who had a Swedish passport; and Marwaan Shemisi, with passports from both Italy and Libya. Is this true?			X
6	There are conflicting news reports of Mohammed Atta's whereabouts prior to 9/11. 10 The FBI has concluded that there is "no evidence that allies of Osama bin Laden were involved," in the unusual volume and ratio of stock puts to calls on American and United Airlines stock and other agencies directly impacted by the terrorist attacks.		X
That peculiar statement notwithstanding, specifically, who purchased the stock options and what information led them to believe that those stocks would go down?			X
What criteria were used to determine whether the purchaser of the stock puts is an ally of Osama bin Laden? Why would the FBI limit the investigation to only allies of bin Laden? Others, [for example, individual Saudis who were involved in financing the terrorists, hedge fund principals or investment groups such as the Carlyle Group or Banker's Trust-AB Brown] could have had foreknowledge of the attack and should be thoroughly investigated and revealed.			X
Recommendation: The Commission should bring in for questioning those identified by the FBI as purchasers of the large amounts of stock puts. Ask them to produce the research which indicated that early September, 2001, was a fortuitous time to purchase an extraordinarily large number of stock puts in the airlines and firms which just happened to be involved in the terrorist attack.
